

1-Day Intensive Course

Straight-Through Processing

Intermediate Level

21 May 2012, Singapore

Who's attending?

This course is beneficial to:

- Middle and Back Office staff and executives
- Front office traders and brokers
- IT Staff who are responsible for STP systems
- Compliance, Legal and Audit staff

Why not recommend this course to a colleague?

“The materials and topics covered are very practical and address the day-to-day issues we are facing.”

Straight-Through Processing (STP) enables the entire trade process for capital markets transactions to be conducted electronically without the need for re-keying or manual intervention, subject to legal and regulatory restrictions. But as a term, STP is often misused and misunderstood. This 1-day course leads participants through the principles, vision and applications of STP and explores what different stakeholders in the industry are doing to support it.

The course provides participants with a understanding of the fundamental issues involved in the conception, processing and settlement of a trade, with particular emphasis on securities and exchange-traded trades, as well as an understanding of the challenges faced by stock exchanges in dealing with 'same day' settlement.

What will I get out of it?

Participants will:

- Understand the drivers and current status of STP
- Identify the key STP driving systems and activities that are implemented at various stages of the trade lifecycle
- Understand the impact of STP on risk, volume, disclosure and regulatory activities.
- Discuss the role of technology and due diligence in STP
